Many of Putnam's most influential citizens are agreed that a general revaluation of the town's property should be mdae.

The chamber of commerce suggested a method under which this could be done and, following a recent conference here, it is likely that a special town meeting will be called in the not distant future for the purpose the not distant future for the pur of allowing citizens to discuss matter.

The chamber of commerce plan to The chamber of commerce plan to employ a firm of experts in this work to make the re-valuation is not one, it is pointed out. This plan merely necessarily, that the town need adopt, has been proferred as a scientific planone that has worked well in many places where it has been tried out and one that is regarded as equitable. An official of the chamber said on Tuesday that any better plan would be day that any better plan would be welcomed, as would any number of better plans. The chamber's interest is in getting an equitable re-valuation and not in attempting to dictate any special manner of making it.
